W. C. T. U. COLUMN

Devoted to the Interest of Christian and Temperance Work, Under the Supervision of Francis Willard
W. C. T. U. and Directed by Mrs. Dr. Dugan to Whom all Communications for This Column Should be Sent.

Our Pledge: "I hereby solemnly promise, God helping me, to abstain from all distilled, fermented and malt liquors, including wine, beer and cider, and to employ all proper means to discourage the use of, and traffic in the same."

Our Motto: "We mean to be as pleasant as sunshine, but as persistent as fate."

State Convention in Steubenville, October 23, 24, 25. The Annual Address will be given on Wednesday evening, October 23rd, by Judge Artman, of Lebanon, Ind. He is the author of the famous decision that the saloon is inherently illegal and all license laws unconstitutional. He will present the legal aspect of the question. Rev. E. O. Taylor, A. M. D. D., who gives the address on Thursday afternoon, October 24, is a lecturer of wide repute and deals chiefly with the scientific phase of the temperance reform.

Mrs. Viola D. Romans, of Cambridge, Ohio, National lecturer, gave an excellent address at a union service recently held at Maqueta, Ia. Strong commendation of Mrs. Romans as a forceful speaker comes from the Maqueta Union.—The Union Signal of September 5th, 1907.

A CALL TO PRAYER.
On September 17 the great state of Oklahoma is to vote on the adoption of the constitution and also vote on the prohibition clause. I hear that the whisky men have made up $1,000,000 to carry the new state for whisky. All mails are crowded with their misleading literature. They are circulating a tract that proposes to be that of the "Citizens League," but which is absolutely nothing but the saloon men's scheme. Brethren, beware.

Brethren over the United States, help us, or Oklahoma is cursed for generations to come. If we succeed at he polls September 17 we can invite people from all other states to bring their sons and daughters and enjoy our new Christian state. Christians of other states who desire to do missionary work, come or send temperance workers. Those who can not come or send, spend much of your time in earnest prayer for the workers of Oklahoma. Saloon men in a solid body will meet at the polls September 17. Let all Christians vote as they pray.—J. L. Haddock in the Christian Evangelists of September 12, 1907.

SALOONS ARRANGED.
Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 6.—Suggestive pictures on the walls of southern saloons are the main cause of the fearful assault made on southern women by negroes, according to Mrs. Nannie Curtis of Texas, who is attending the Epworth assembly in Lincoln. Mrs. Curtis, who is national organizer of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, said in a public address at the Epworth assembly: "The saloons have robbed us white women of our loved ones, of our homes and now they have robbed us of our clothes and have hung us upon the walls of saloons to inflame the passions of drunken black brutes."

Where there is no saloon, there is no saloon politics. The best step towards good government is to put out the saloon.—The Union Signal.

PROMOTERS ARE PLEASED

Marion to Have Military Company.

RECRUITS ARE ENLISTING

Manufacturing Concerns to Give Their Support.

Moral Lone of New Command will be of the Highest—Good Men Wanted.

The promoters of the new military company say that it is now a practical certainty that an organization will be effected and that a permanent command will be established here. All of the manufacturing companies of the city have promised their support, both moral and financial, to the enterprise and men working in the factories may enlist without any fear of being discriminated against. In the past, local companies had refused to let their men leave work to attend to military duties.

Already several ex-regulators have signed applications for membership, but they insist that it be a high class company with full discipline. Major J. W. McMurray, who is the real head of the movement to get a new company, says that he is fully in accord with the desire to get good men and to have strict discipline observed.

Major McMurray assures the parents of all prospective members that the moral tone of the new company will be of the highest and that the training will be beneficial to boys as well as to men.

"Just now, with all this talk of war there is no telling when the United States will need trained men and it is to be hoped that in case of an emergency, Marion will be ready to furnish a good company," says Major McMurray.

"In the Civil war Marion served in the Fourth Infantry with great credit, as she also did in the Spanish-American war. If another war is inevitable, Marion should again be represented in the fourth."

Men over 18 years of age, wishing to enlist, may call on Major McMurray, L. B. McNeal or George T. Ryan.

Old Racing Boat in Trade.

About a month ago there came into New York with a cargo of herring from Labrador the old cup racer Lavonia, which was the challenger in 171 against the schooner Columbia. The old cup boat is now plying between Boston and Labrador and Newfoundland ports, and she appears as rakish looking as of old, but shows the marks of more than 35 years' battling with the seas. She is still good for many years and her skipper takes great pride in her.

GHOST HAUNTS BRIDEGROOM.

Unwelcome Attention of Alleged Spectre in Wales.

Cardiff, Wales.—The freaks of a so-called spectre are alarming a hamlet some forty miles from Cardiff. The ghost has been paying unwelcome attention to a well known inhabitant of the hamlet who was recently married.

The trouble commenced by his finding himself lying on his bedroom floor beside his bride one morning. Naturally, he put this down to nightmare. The morning after, however, on awakening, he found himself at the other end of the room, and he then became somewhat uneasy. His wife on both occasions had slept peacefully.

The third night, however, both kept awake, and their vigil was rewarded by a sight of their mysterious visitor, who appeared shortly after the traditional hour of midnight.

A trustworthy correspondent ascertained from the victim that the spirit took the form of his own mother, who is still alive and well. He says that his mother opposed his marriage with the lady of his choice very strongly, and he thinks that the nocturnal visits are acts of revenge.

In order to drive forth the unwelcome intruder, the victim persuaded several of his male friends to remain in his house one night, but although the ghost appeared as usual to the young man, his wife, and his mother-in-law, the other watchers were quite unable to discern the strange presence.

The young man's mother-in-law declares that on one occasion she approached the specter, who said, quite distinctly, "Well, what do you want?" She also says that she temporarily lost the power of the right side of her body at the meeting.

The victim declares that the spirit has several times accompanied him part of the way to the village, where he is engaged as a collier. His comrades are greatly perturbed by the frequent appearance of the specter and believe firmly in the victim's veracity. The vicar of the parish and several others have visited the house and tried in vain to elucidate the mystery.
